

Located between
Hakodate and Sapporo

Travel while encountering places to drop by on the way

Hokkaido 八雲 Yakumo

Panorama Road

Yakumo Tourism and Local Products Association

Access to Yakumo

- By JR (Japan Railways) train
Approx. 1 hour from Hakodate Station
Approx. 2 1/2 hours from Sapporo Station
Approx. 2 hours from New Chitose Airport
Approx. 5 hours by Shinkansen and express train from Tokyo Station
- By car
Approx. 1 1/2 hours from Hakodate
Approx. 3 1/2 hours from Sapporo
Approx. 3 1/2 hours from Chitose

Inquiries Oka no Eki (Yakumo Tourist Information & Products Center / Tourism and Local Products Association)
Hamamatsu 368-8, Yakumo, Futami-gun, Hokkaido (within Funka Bay Panorama Park)
Tel. 0137-65-6100 Fax. 0137-62-2136
● Closed on Mondays
The following day if Monday is a national holiday.
● Open 10:00-18:00
● <http://www.yakumo-okanoeki.com/>
info-okanoeki@yakumo-okanoeki.com

Pacific Ocean 太平洋

Yakumo Breeding Farm overlooking the Pacific Ocean

The only town in Japan with two seas

Sunset over the Sea of Japan in the Kumaishi area of Yakumo

日本海 Sea of Japan

Savor the taste of ice cream made with milk fresh from the cow.

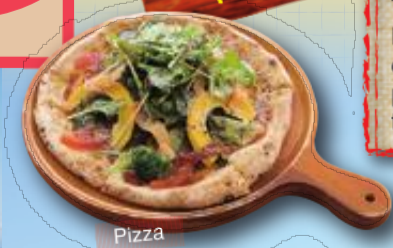

Ice cream

It's rich and delicious! Don't miss it when you come to Panorama Park

HARVESTER YAKUMO

Pizza

The birthplace of Japanese herb-fed chicken. Enjoy fried chicken and stone-oven-baked pizza while taking in views of the Pacific Ocean.

Panorama Terrace

Breeding Farm dairy cows

Yakumo dairy products

Top-quality dairy products from the birthplace of dairy farming in Hokkaido

Futami Curry

Japanese-style curry brimming with delicacies from the land and sea – a gourmet dish only found in Yakumo

It's a great place to visit and even better place to live. Why not come to Yakumo and eat delicious food?

Vegetables produced in Yakumo

Abundant wild vegetables and crops lovingly grown by farmers

Farmer

[Originally from Hsinchu County in Taiwan]

Fan Hwei Ting

became a permanent resident and organic vegetable farmer after falling in love with Yakumo's magnificent nature.

A fusion of the blessings of the land and the two seas

Scallops, kelp, octopus, whelks – all tasty marine products from the Yakumo seas

Fisherman

[Fisherman] Masahiro Sotozaki

A veteran of his trade, skilled in producing deliciously smoked seafood products caught off the Yakumo shores

Scallops

Scallops nurtured in Funka Bay are so delicious they are also shipped to France.

Botan shrimps

The melt-in-the-mouth sweetness is irresistible.

Abalones

Delicious, firmly textured abalones are cultivated off the Sea of Japan coast.

Spring 春

Saranbe park

Take a relaxing stroll amid the beautiful cherry blossoms slightly off the beaten track.

Japanese Festival

Enjoy summer in Japan at a festival that boasts a 400-year history

Summer 夏

Autumn 秋

Umemura Garden

Enjoy the vividly colored autumn leaves in the Japanese-style garden from the pavilion of this facility, where admission is free of charge.

The soothing four seasons

Oboko Spa Hotel

Enjoy the scenery and cuisine at this spa hotel with a continuous supply of uncirculated hot spring water direct from source.

Steller's sea eagle

Steller's sea eagles, the king of the wild birds and "natural monument of Japan" often fly into the area.

Salmon

In autumn, 100,000 large salmon return up the Yurappu River.

Winter 冬

Samuibeya Festival

Funka Bay Panorama Park's annual winter event. The 100-m-long ice slide – said to be the longest in Japan – provides the thrills, and other activities such as snowmobiling and tube sliding enable visitors to thoroughly enjoy the snow and cold.